1 recreational, or scientific purposes; the effect on them of disease,
2 pollution, or predation; or any other factor or combination of
3 factors, natural or man-made.

4 b. The department shall remove any plant from the endangered
5 plant species list if (1) the plant is an invasive species and (2) is not
6 on the federal endangered plant species list pursuant to the
7 "Endangered Species Act of 1973," Pub.L.93-205 (16 U.S.C. s.1531
8 et seq.).

9 (cf: P.L. 1989, c.56, s.4)

10
11 3. (New Section) The department shall have the authority to 12 control or eliminate an invasive plant species regardless of the 13 existence, or possible existence, of endangered plant species in the 14 area being controlled, except as may be prohibited by federal law,
15 rule, or regulation.

16
17 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

20 STATEMENT

21
22 This bill would amend the definition of the term "endangered
23 species" as used in the State's "Endangered Plant Species List Act"
24 to mean any plant species that (1) is designated as listed, proposed,
25 or under review by the federal government as endangered or 26 threatened throughout its range in the United States pursuant to the 27 federal "Endangered Species Act of 1973," any additional species
28 known or believed to be rare throughout its worldwide range, and 29 any species having five or fewer extant populations within the 30 State, and (2) is not an invasive species.

31 The bill would define the term "invasive species" to mean any 32 plant which has a high potential to become noxious or which is 33 likely to spread to a degree that will likely cause damage to the 34 environment, human economy, or human health.

35 Some non-native plant species exhibit an aggressive growth habit
36 and can out-compete and displace native plant species. Invasive
37 species also can degrade, change, or displace native habitats.

38 This bill would also allow the Department of Environmental
39 Protection to remove any plant from the endangered plant species
40 list, if the plant is an invasive species, unless the plant is included
41 on the federal endangered plant species list pursuant to the 42 "Endangered Species Act of 1973." Furthermore, the bill would 43 authorize the department to control or eliminate an invasive plant
44 species regardless of the existence, or possible existence, of 45 endangered plant species in the area being controlled, except as may 46 be prohibited by federal law, rule, or regulation.
